Editor's Note

The hymnal is a closed book to the average minister, superintendent, chorister and layman. It ought to be a fascinating volume of history, biography, nature descriptions, ethics and religion. Its famous men and women, its outstanding dates, its literary and musical charm, and its virility to meet the present day needs, ought to stir the hymn-singing world to a new appreciation of this wonder book. To hasten this day, the Hymnal for American Youth features dates, authors, composers, tune names, and copious indexes; names of many renowned men and women are to be found at the top of each hymn page, while great events in church and world history are revived in such tune names as Nicaea, Armageddon, Arthur's Seat, and Crusaders Hymn.

In order to stimulate further interest in historic and biographical backgrounds and in the truest emotional interpretation in singing, several pamphlets are to follow this Hymnal, one on how to tell hymn stories to children, another on how to interpret and lead hymns for mass singing.

The Hymnal for American Youth, of strategic content for adolescent, college, and church life, is also a winsome volume for junior boys and girls in the Sunday School. Attention is called to the following special features:

1. The forward march of the music, uninterrupted by black bars or annoying rests.
2. Range of tunes best adapted to congregational singing.
3. Facile keys, both for singer and player, avoiding double sharps and flats and awkward accidentals.
4. Unison tunes of flowing lines and rich instrumental accompaniment.
5. All stanzas restored to position in the music, with words directly above or below the notes.
6. Objectionable phrases re-edited for most effective use with young people; stanzas omitted wherever possible without weakening the total appeal of the hymn.
7. Alternate tunes on opposite pages, so as to allow choice of a second tune within the range of the eye.
8. Complete data as to authors, composers, tune names, and metrical forms.
9. Unusual strength in the sections devoted to the Life and Ministry of Jesus, Purity and Self Control, Conflict and Heroism, Human Service and Brotherhood, Freedom and Justice, Patriotism and Democracy, Peace, World Brotherhood, and Missions.

Editor's Note

10. Orders of worship on vital themes, with liturgic beauty, directness of appeal, and simplicity of execution; many of the services being in the same key throughout; Service Five in E flat, Fourteen in F, Sixteen in A flat, and Twenty in B flat.

With the help and inspiration of professorial colleagues, of class-room discussion, of convention clinics, and of predecessors in hymn book construction, the Hymnal for American Youth has grown through the years to be the present book. It is therefore the composite of many minds and hearts, and represents co-operative editorship from ocean to ocean, and from Canada to Mexico.

In the final shaping up of the book Professor Richard G. Appel, Reverend Moreton W. Owen, and Doctor Charles L. Noyes have given invaluable aid.

For my wife, Lucia May Smith, whose musical supervision, proof reading, and hymn data collaboration have made this book possible, I reserve my last word of thanks and the affectionate dedication of this Hymnal.

Raise high your free, ex - ult - ing song, God's won - drous praise de - clare.
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss, True rap - ture, no - blest mirth!
Send forth the hymns our fa - thers loved, The psalms of an - cient days.
From youth to age, by night and day, In glad - ness and in woe.
As war - riors thro' the dark - ness toil Till dawns the gold - en day.

We Thank Thee, Lord, for This Fair Earth 11

(HOPE)

- 1 We thank thee, Lord, for this fair earth,
 The glittering sky, the silver sea;
 For all their beauty, all their worth,
 Their light and glory, come from thee.
- 2 Thine are the flowers that clothe the ground,
 The trees that wave their arms above,
 The hills that gird our dwellings round,
 As thou dost gird thine own with love.
- 3 Yet teach us still how far more fair,
 More glorious, Father, in thy sight,
 Is one pure deed, one holy prayer,
 One heart that owns thy Spirit's might.
- 4 So while we gaze with thoughtful eye
 On all the gifts thy love has given,
 Help us in thee to live and die,
 By thee to rise from earth to heaven.

 We reach the rest re-main-ing To spir-its of the blest;

On thee the high and low-ly, Bend-ing be-fore the throne,

 From mid-night fears and per-ils thou Our trem-bling hearts de-fend;

Be-fore thy throne, O Lord of heaven, We kneel at close of day;
 The bright-ness of the com-ing night Up-on the dark-ness rolls;
 Give us a res-pite from our toil, Calm and sub-due our woes;

 With hopes of fu-ture glo-ry, chase The shad-ows from our souls.
 Through the long day we la-bor, Lord, O give us now re-pose. A-MEN.

Peacefully Round Us the Shadows Are Falling 24

(CURFEW)

- 1 Peacefully round us the shadows are falling,
 Glad be our praises and trustful our prayer:
 Hear us, O Lord, on thy providence calling,
 Lighten our darkness, and banish our care.
- 2 Hushed are the sheep-bells afar on the moorland,
 O'er the still meadows the night breezes sweep,
 Faint fall the footsteps in city and hamlet,
 Safely the children are folded in sleep.
- 3 Softly may weary ones rest from their duty,
 Bright be the dreams of the troubled and worn,
 While through the shade beam the stars in their beauty,
 Watching the world till the breaking of morn.
- 4 Lord of the night, let thine angels defend us;
 Sunshine and gloom are alike unto thee:
 Lord of the day, let thy Spirit attend us,
 Bless us and keep us wherever we be.

Shepherd of Tender Youth

(ITALIAN HYMN)

(The earliest known hymn of the Christian Church)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Shepherd of tender youth,
 Guiding in love and truth
 Through devious ways;
 Christ, our triumphant King,
 We come thy name to sing,
 And here our children bring,
 To sound thy praise! 2 Thou art our Holy Lord,
 The all-subduing Word,
 Healer of strife:
 Thou didst thyself abase, | That from sin's deep disgrace
 Thou mightest save our race,
 And give us life. 3 Ever be thou our Guide,
 Our Shepherd and our Pride,
 Our Staff and Song:
 Jesus, thou Christ of God,
 By thy enduring word,
 Lead us where thou hast trod,
 Make our faith strong. |

(CAROL. C. M. D.)

EDMUND H. SEARS, 1849

RICHARD S. WILLIS, 1850

1. It came up-on the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old,

 3. And ye, be-neath life's crush-ing load, Whose forms are bend-ing low,

From an-gels bend-ing near the earth, To touch their harps of gold:
 And still their heav-enly mu-sic floats O'er all the wea-ry world:
 Who toil a-long the climb-ing way, With pain-ful steps and slow,—
 When with the ev-er-cir-cling years Comes round the age of gold;

'Peace on the earth, good-will to men, From heaven's all-gra-cious King;'
 A-bove its sad and low-ly plains They bend on heav-enly wing,
 Look now, for glad and gold-en hours Come swift-ly on the wing;
 When peace shall o-ver all the earth Its an-cient splen-dors fling,

The world in sol-emn still-ness lay To hear the an-gels sing.
 And ev-er o'er its Ba-bel-sounds The bless-ed an-gels sing.

A Thousand Years Have Come

76

(CAROL)

- 1 A thousand years have come and gone,
 And near a thousand more,
 Since happier light from heaven shone
 Than ever shone before,
 And in the hearts of old and young
 A joy most joyful stirred,
 That sent such news from tongue to tongue
 As ears had never heard.
- 2 And we are glad, and we will sing,
 As in the days of yore;
 Come all, and hearts made ready bring,
 To welcome back once more
 The day when first on wintry earth
 A summer change began,
 And, dawning in a lowly birth,
 Uprose the Light of man.

Amid the Din of Earthly Strife 103

(BEAUFORT)

- 1 Amid the din of earthly strife,
 Amid the busy crowd,
 The whispers of eternal life
 Are lost in clamors loud;
 When lo! I find a healing balm,
 The world grows dim to me;
 My spirit rests in sudden calm
 With him of Galilee.
- 2 I linger near him in the throng,
 And listen to his voice;
 I feel my weary soul grow strong,
 My saddened heart rejoice.
 Amid the storms that darkly frown
 I hear his call to me,
 And lay my heavy burden down
 With him of Galilee.

There Is a Green Hill Far Away

(GREEN HILL. C. M. With Refrain)

CECIL F. ALEXANDER, 1848

GEORGE C. STEBBINS, 1878

1. There is a green hill far a-way, With-out a cit-y wall,
 2. We may not know, we can-not tell What pains he had to bear;
 3. He died that we might be for-given, He died to make us good,
 4. There was no oth-er good e-nough To pay the price of sin;

Where the dear Lord was cru-ci-fied, Who died to save us all.
 But we be-lieve it was for us He hung and suf-fered there.
 That we might go at last to heaven, Saved by his pre-cious blood.
 He on-ly could un-lock the gate Of heaven, and let us in.

(HAMBURG. L. M.)

Arranged by LOWELL MASON, 1824

ISAAC WATTS, 1707

1. When I sur-vey the won-drous cross On which the Prince of glo-ry died,
 2. For-bid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ, my God;

My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.
 All the vain things that charm me most, I sac-ri-fice them to his blood.
 Did e'er such love and sor-row meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
 Love so a-maz-ing, so di-vine, Demands my soul, my life, my all. AMEN.

O Day of Light and Gladness

(LANCASHIRE)

- 1 O day of light and gladness,
 Of prophecy and song,
 What thoughts within us waken,
 What hallowed memories throng !
 The soul's horizon widens,
 Past, present, future blend ;
 And rises on our vision
 The life that hath no end.
- 2 Earth feels the season's joyance ;
 From mountain range to sea
 The tides of life are flowing
 Fresh, manifold and free.
 In valley and on upland,
 By forest pathways dim,
 All nature lifts in chorus
 The resurrection hymn.
- 3 O Lord of life eternal,
 To thee our hearts upraise
 The Easter song of gladness,
 The Passover of praise.
 Thine are the many mansions,
 The dead die not to thee,
 Who fillest from thy fulness
 Time and eternity.

Lift Up, Lift Up Your Voices Now

O Master! When Thou Callest

135

(ST. HILDA)

1 O Master! when thou callest,
 No voice may say thee nay,
 For blest are they that follow
 Where thou dost lead the way ;
 In freshest prime of morning,
 Or fullest glow of noon,
 The note of heavenly warning
 Can never come too soon.

2 O Master! when thou callest,
 No heart may dare refuse ;
 'Tis honor, highest honor,
 When thou dost deign to use
 Our brightest and our fairest,
 Our dearest — all are thine ;
 Thou who for each one carest,
 We hail thy love's design.

We Bear the Strain of Earthly Care

145

(SERENITY)

- 1 We bear the strain of earthly care,
 But bear it not alone;
 Beside us walks our brother Christ
 And makes our task his own.
- 2 Through din of market, whirl of wheels,
 And thrust of driving trade,
 We follow where the Master leads,
 Serene and unafraid.
- 3 The common hopes that make us men
 Were his in Galilee;
 The tasks he gives are those he gave Beside the restless sea.
- 4 Our brotherhood still rests in him,
 The Brother of us all,
 And o'er the centuries still we hear
 The Master's winsome call.

For the field is set, and the hosts are met, And the Lord his own is guid-ing:
 And the bro-ken heart shall for-get its smart, And shall hail a joy-ful mor-row.
 And the pray'rs that rise to the listening skies Like a song of hope shall cheer us;

Thro' the earth's wide round let the ti-dings sound Of the Lord who came from heaven,
 Long we fight with wrong, and our weapon strong Is the love which hate shall ban-ish;
 Till the sun-rise broad of the day of God, Shall de-clare the vic-tor's glo-ry,

Of the might-y hope that with death can cope, And the love so free-ly giv-en.

 He is call-ing for his an-gels To build up the gates of day:
 'Tis the tri-umph-song of Je-sus, Of our King, Em-man-u-el!

Wea-ry was our heart with wait-ing, And the night-watch seemed so long,
 For the east-ern skies are glow-ing As with light of hid-den fire,
 But his an-gels here are hu-man, Not the shin-ing hosts a-bove;
 Go ye forth with joy to meet him! And, my soul, be swift to bring

 We lift our battle cry!
 To live for thee is more than life,
 And more than death to die!
 Now by the blood our fathers gave,
 And by our God above,
 And by the Flag on every grave,
 We pledge to thee our love. | 2 America, America,
 Bid all thy banners shine!
 O Mother of the mighty dead,
 Our very lives are thine.
 At Freedom's altar now we stand
 For God and Liberty!
 Lord, God of Hosts, at thy command,
 We lift our souls to thee. |

 Speed on, by sea and air!
 We take the stripes of sacrifice,

Lord God of Hosts, Whose Mighty Hand 244

(LEST WE FORGET)

- 1 Lord God of Hosts, whose mighty hand
 Dominion holds on sea and land,
 In peace and war thy will we see
 Shaping the larger liberty.
 Nations may rise and nations fall,
 Thy Changeless Purpose rules them all.
- 2 For those who weak and broken lie,
 In weariness and agony—
 Great Healer, to their beds of pain
 Come, touch, and make them whole again!
 O hear a people's prayers, and bless
 Thy servants in their hour of stress!
- 3 For those to whom the call shall come
 We pray thy tender welcome home.
 The toil, the bitterness, all past,
 We trust them to thy love at last.
 O hear a people's prayers for all
 Who, nobly striving, nobly fall!
- 4 For those who minister and heal,
 And spend themselves, their skill, their zeal—
 Renew their hearts with Christ-like faith,
 And guard them from disease and death.
 And in thine own good time, Lord, send
 Thy peace on earth till time shall end!

Our feet keep time to the glad re-frain that floods the sun-lit sky.

We'll on-ward press at the Mas-ter's call, in ar-mor bright ar-rayed,
With Zi-on's King as our Lead-er true, we ne'er can be dis-mayed,
We for-ward march at the trum-pet's call, our hearts on Christ are stayed,

Our voic-es ring in a joy-ous strain—the song of the 'New Cru-sade.'
But praise his name, as we shout and sing the song of the 'New Cru-sade.'

Eternal Peace, Whose Word of Old

(MELITA)

- 1 Eternal Peace, whose word of old

 And shut within their rocky fold
 The unnumbered flocks of ocean's plain:
 O hear us! while the billows roar,

 Is still unknown, but who didst keep

 The surging ocean unafraid,
 Unto the home he longed to view:
 To all who sail the waters rude,

I Heard a Sound of Voices

(PATMOS. 7, 6, 8, 6, D.)

GODFREY THRING, 1886

HENRY J. STORER, 1891

1. I heard a sound of voices A - round the great white throne,
 2. From every clime and kindred, And nations from afar,
 3. And there no sun was needed, Nor moon to shine by night,

With harpers harping on their harps To him who sat there on:
 As serried ranks returning home In triumph from a war:
 God's glory did enlighten all, The Lamb himself the light;

'Salvation, glory, honor!' I heard the song arise,
 I heard the saints uprising, The myriad hosts among,
 And there his servants serve him, And life's long battle o'er,

As thro' the courts of heaven it rolled In wondrous harmonies.
 In praise of him who died, and lives, Their one glad triumph-song.
 Enthroned with him, their Saviour, King, They reign forever more. A - MEN.

Responses

LEADER: Honor and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

ASSEMBLY: I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

LEADER: O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

ASSEMBLY: For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. (Seated)

GENERAL WORSHIP AND PRAISE

Hymn (Second stanza)

Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.

LEADER: The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

ASSEMBLY: God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

LEADER: The Lord is in his holy temple.

Chant (All sing)

The image shows a musical score for a chant. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff: "Let all the earth keep silence before him." The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a steady rhythm.

Responses

LEADER: The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

ASSEMBLY: O Lord, open thou our lips, and our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

LEADER: The Lord is in his holy temple.

Chant (All sing)

Let all the earth keep silence before him.
Seek ye the Lord while he may be found;
Call ye upon him while he is near.
The Lord is gracious and full of compassion:
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
The Lord is in his holy temple.

Chant (All sing)

Let all the earth keep silence before him.

Responsive Reading (Psalm 96. Standing)

O sing unto the Lord a new song; sing unto the Lord, all the earth.
Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; show forth his salvation from day to day.
Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.
For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised:

He is to be feared above all gods; honor and majesty are before him:

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Ascribe unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the peoples, ascribe unto the Lord glory and strength.

Ascribe unto the Lord the glory due unto his name :

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

Hymn (Third stanza. See p. 6)

Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,

These are the offerings we lay on his shrine.

These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,

He will accept in the Name all divine. Amen.

O worship the Lord in holy array:

Tremble before him, all the earth. Say among the nations,
the Lord reigneth :

The world also is established that it cannot be moved:

He will judge the peoples with equity.

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice ;

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

Let the field exult, and all that is therein ;

Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy before the Lord;

For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth :

He will judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with his truth.

Prayer

Unison Psalm (Psalm 8)

O Lord, our Lord,

How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,

The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than the angels,

And hast crowned him with glory and honor.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;

Thou hast put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen,

Yea, and the beasts of the field;

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,

And whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O LORD, OUR LORD,

HOW EXCELLENT IS THY NAME IN ALL THE EARTH!

Call to Worship

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up unto the Lord.

O Lord, open thou our eyes.

That we may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

O Lord, open thou our lips.

And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Praise ye the Lord.

The Lord's name be praised.

Doxology (All sing)

Be thou, O God! exalted high;
And, as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth displayed,
Till thou art here, as there, obeyed! Amen.

Antiphons of Praise

LEADER: It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord,
And to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:
To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning,
And thy faithfulness every night.

ASSEMBLY: Serve the Lord with gladness:
Come before his presence with thanksgiving.

LEADER: From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's name is to be praised.

Doxology (All sing)

Good will to men, we bow the knee,
We praise, we bless, we worship thee.
We give thee thanks, thy name we sing,
Almighty Father, heavenly King. Amen.

Old Testament Beatitudes

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked; but his delight is in the law of the Lord.
Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, that seek him with the whole heart.
Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord promised to them that love him.
Blessed is the man whose strength is in the Lord.
Blessed is the man whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
Blessed is the man that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in the day of evil.
Blessed are they who regard justice, and who practice righteousness at all times.
Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; they will be still praising thee.

Doxology (All sing)

Lo, God is here! him, day and night,
United choirs of angels sing;
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's host their noblest praises bring. Amen.

New Testament Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you,
And shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven:
For so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

O Lord my God, thou art very great;

Thou art clothed with honor and majesty:

Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment;

Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters;

Who maketh the clouds his chariot;

Who walketh upon the wings of the wind;

THE KING OF GLORY

Who maketh winds his messengers,
Flames of fire his ministers:

Let the glory of the Lord endure for ever;

Let the Lord rejoice in his works:

Who looketh on the earth, and it trembleth;

He toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live:

I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

Let my meditation be sweet unto him:

I will rejoice in the Lord.

ALL: BLESS THE LORD, O MY SOUL.
PRAISE YE THE LORD.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters; he restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills:
From whence cometh my help?

My help cometh from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Will neither slumber nor sleep.

God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved;
God will help her, and that right early.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Nature Descriptions in Hymns (Seated)

(The leader may read these lines, requesting the assembly to name the hymns from which these descriptions are taken.)

I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills.
Purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain.
Fair are the meadows,
Fairer still the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of spring.
Wait and worship while the night
Sets her evening lamps alight
Through all the sky.

O'er earth's green fields
And ocean's wave beat shore.
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand.
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high.
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.

The One Thousandth Psalm (Edward Everett Hale)

LEADER: O God, we thank thee for everything!

ASSEMBLY: For the sea and its waves, blue and green and gray, and always wonderful!

For the beach and the breakers and the spray and the white foam on the rocks.

For the blue arch of heaven, for the clouds in the sky, white and gray and purple.

For the green of the grass, for the forests in their spring beauty, for the wheat and corn, and rye and barley.

For the brown earth turned up by the plough, for the sun by day, and the dews by night;

We thank thee for all thou hast made and that thou hast called it good.

For all the glory and beauty and wonder of the world;

For the glory of spring-time, the tints of the flowers and their fragrance;

For the glory of the summer flowers, the roses and cardinals and clethra;

For the glory of the autumn, the scarlet and crimson and gold of the forest;

For the glory of winter, the pure snow on the shrubs and trees.

We thank thee that thou hast placed us in the world to subdue all things to thy glory.

And to use all things for the good of thy children.

ALL: WE THANK THEE! WE ENTER INTO THY WORK, AND GO ABOUT THY BUSINESS.

Prayer (All uniting)

We thank thee, O Lord, for the things that are out of doors; for the fresh air and the open sky and the growing grass and the tiny flowers and the setting sun and the wooded hill and the brown earth beneath our feet. Keep us ever like thy good world, rugged and wholesome and true. Amen. (Outdoor Prayers — Dartmouth Outing Club)

ALL: THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURETH FOREVER.

LEADER: All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

ASSEMBLY: Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they that testify of me.

Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Is not my word like a fire, saith the Lord? and like a hammer that breaketh the rocks in pieces?

The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword. It is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and light unto my path.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, that seek him with the whole heart.

LEADER: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

ASSEMBLY: Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

I will delight myself in thy statutes; I will not forget thy word.

ASSEMBLY: Every man that striveth in the games exerciseth self control in all things.

LEADER: The glory of young men is their strength.

ASSEMBLY: My strength is as the strength of ten because my heart is pure.

Song of the Boy (LEADER)

Oh! the joy of the measured strength.
To run with the fleet, and leap with the supple,
And strive with the strong!
To struggle with friendly foes, and to know at length,
By measuring strength with strength,

To reach with body and soul

To rejoice that the best man wins,
Though another be first at the goal.
Oh! Life is sweet. Justia Stern

II. SOCIAL

ALL: NO MAN LIVETH UNTO HIMSELF.

ASSEMBLY: For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies: and none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared with her.

Hymn O Master Workman (Third stanza)

O thou who dost the vision send

Hymn Prelude No. 202 Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus (Followed by the singing of first stanza only. Standing)

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed. Refrain.

LEADER: Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

ASSEMBLY: For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

LEADER: Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart.

ASSEMBLY: They that wait on the Lord, shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.

Hymn (Second stanza)

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:
Ye that are men, now serve him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose. Refrain.

The Right Kind of American Boy (Leader)

What we have a right to expect from the American boy, is that he shall turn out to be a good American man.

Now, the chances are strong that he won't be much of a man unless he is a good deal of a boy.

He must not be a coward or a weakling, a bully, a shirk, or a prig.

He must work hard and play hard.

He must be clean-minded and clean-lived and able to hold his own under all circumstances and against all comers.

It is only on these conditions that he will grow to be the kind of man of whom America can really be proud.

In life, as in a foot ball game, the principle to follow is: Hit the line hard; don't foul and don't shirk, but hit the line hard. Theodore Roosevelt

Hymn No. 182 How Firm a Foundation (Roosevelt's Favorite Hymn)

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord!
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say, than to you he hath said,—
To you, who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

Hardships will be your lot, but trust in God, he will give you comfort. Temptation will befall you, but the teachings of our Saviour will give you strength. Let your valor as a soldier and your conduct as a man be an inspiration to your comrades and an honor to your country. General Pershing

Prayer (All unite reverently. Remain standing)

Heavenly Father, thou knowest I desire to do my whole duty now and always. Give me an open mind to hear thy call and a willing heart to respond. May I be able through thee both to do and to dare. Keep me from faltering or turning aside from any task thou hast given me. May I be strong, having on the whole armor of God, and on every battlefield may I acquit myself like a true soldier of the Cross. Amen. Judson Swift

Hymn (Second stanza of preceding hymn)

Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my gracious, omnipotent hand. Amen.

Toiling Upward!

LEADER: No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

ASSEMBLY: The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night.

Press On, Press On, Ye Sons of Light

WILLIAM GASKELL
UNISON

(SONS OF LIGHT. L. M.)

FRANK LYNES, 1858-1913

1. Press on, press on, ye sons of light, Un-tir-ing in your ho-ly fight; Still
2. Press on, press on, thro' toil and woe Calm-ly re-solved to tri-umph go; And
3. Press on, press on, still look in faith To him who vanquish'd sin and death; And, tread-ing each temp-ta-tion down And bat-tling for a bright-er crown.

make each dark and threat-ening ill Yield but a high-er glo-ry still.
till you hear his high 'Well done,' True to the last, press on, press on. A-MEN.

Prepared for the Fight!

LEADER: Without labor there is no arriving at rest, nor without fighting can the victory be reached.

ASSEMBLY: If thou art unwilling to suffer, thou refuseth to be crowned,
But if thou desire to be crowned, fight manfully, endure patiently.

LEADER: Without a combat thou canst not attain unto the crown of patience.

ASSEMBLY: Be thou therefore always prepared for the fight,
If thou wilt have the victory. Thomas a Kempis

On! Sail On!

LEADER: They sailed! They sailed! Then spake the mate:
This mad sea shows his teeth to-night.
He lifts his lip, he lies in wait,
With lifted teeth, as if to bite.
Brave Admiral, say but one good word:
What shall we do when hope is gone?
The words leaped like a leaping sword:
'Sail on! sail on! sail on! and on!'

* * * *

ASSEMBLY: And then a speck!
A light! a light! a light! a light!
It grew, a starlit flag unfurled!
It grew to be Time's burst of dawn!
He gained a world; he gave that world
Its grandest lesson: 'On! sail on!' Joaquin Miller

Play Up! Play the Game!

LEADER: The sand of the desert is sodden red —
Red with the wreck of a square that broke —
The Gatling's jammed and the Colonel dead,
And the regiment blind with dust and smoke.
The river of death has brimmed his banks,
And England's far, and Honor a name,
But the voice of a schoolboy rallies the ranks:
'Play up! Play up! and play the game.'

Carry On! My Soul! Carry On!

ALL: CARRY ON! CARRY ON!
FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT AND TRUE;
BELIEVE IN YOUR MISSION, GREET LIFE WITH A CHEER, THERE'S BIG WORK TO DO, AND THAT'S WHY YOU ARE HERE.
CARRY ON! CARRY ON!
LET THE WORLD BE THE BETTER FOR YOU;
AND AT LAST WHEN YOU DIE, LET THIS BE YOUR CRY:
CARRY ON, MY SOUL! CARRY ON! Robert W. Service

Behold, the Lamb of God!

ASSEMBLY: And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

LEADER: And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them,
What seek ye?

ASSEMBLY: And they said unto him, Teacher, where abidest thou?

LEADER: He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see.

ASSEMBLY: Philip findeth Nathaniel, and saith unto him,
We have found him, of whom Moses in the law and the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

LEADER: And Nathaniel said unto him,

Prayer

Lord Jesus, by whose voice the fishermen were called to a better fishing, constrain us, we pray thee, by that same loving call, to follow thee to the saving of others. Thou hast indeed been calling us this great while, as we listened indifferently, and turned to our small tasks once more. But now we are longing for the same spirit that drew the fishermen straightway to thy side for service. Grant that we may be swift to answer thee, and to take on the true spirit of thy ministry. Amen. Philip E. Howard

Response

We Give Thee but Thine Own

(ST. ANDREW. 6, 6, 8, 6)

WILLIAM WALSHAM HOW, 1858

JOSEPH BARNBY, 1866

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of two systems of music. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The vocal line begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment begins with a bass clef and the same key signature and time signature. The lyrics for the first system are: "We give thee but thine own, What-e'er the gift may be; All". The second system also has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "that we have is thine a-lone, A trust, O Lord, from thee. A-MEN." The piano accompaniment continues with the same lyrics. The score ends with a double bar line.

*Commit Thy Way Unto HimResponsive Reading (Matthew vi: 25-33)

LEADER: Jesus said: therefore I say unto you, be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on.

ASSEMBLY: Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

LEADER: Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they?

ASSEMBLY: And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?

LEADER: And why are ye anxious concerning raiment?

Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

ASSEMBLY: Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

LEADER: But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

ASSEMBLY: Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

LEADER: For after all these things do the Gentiles seek;

For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

ASSEMBLY: But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness;
And all these things shall be added unto you.

LOVE AND SERVICE

The Vision of Isaiah (Standing)

LEADER: I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple! Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said:

Sanctus (All sing)

Theme from 'The Holy City'
ALFRED R. GAUL

Ho-ly, Ho - ly, Ho-ly, Lord of Hosts: Ho-ly, Ho - ly, Ho-ly is the Lord of Hosts.

LEADER: And the foundations of the thresholds were moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! Because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar; and he touched my mouth with it, and said: Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thy iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged!

Sanctus (All sing)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord of Hosts
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.

LEADER: And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: Whom shall I send and who will go for us?

ALL: THEN SAID I, HERE AM I; SEND ME.

AND I?
IS THERE SOME DESERT OR SOME PATHLESS SEA
WHERE THOU, GOOD GOD OF ANGELS, WILT SEND ME?
SOME OAK FOR ME TO REND; SOME SOD,
SOME ROCK FOR ME TO BREAK;
SOME HANDFUL OF HIS CORN TO TAKE AND SCATTER FAR AFIELD,
TILL IT, IN TURN, SHALL YIELD
ITS HUNDRED FOLD
OF GRAINS OF GOLD
TO FEED THE WAITING CHILDREN OF MY GOD?
SHOW ME THE DESERT, FATHER, OR THE SEA.
IS IT THINE ENTERPRISE? GREAT GOD, SEND ME.

Edward Everett Hale

Prayer

O thou Christ of Galilee, who didst go into the homes and the hearts of many folk and kindle there a light which has burned through all the centuries, make me a humble sharer of thy glory and goodness, that so I may find a purpose and meaning in my life. XIII. Mother's Day

(Mother's Day is observed the second Sunday in May)

(This service also commemorates Father's Day and the Home)

Instrumental Prelude

The White Carnation

It is suggested that a white carnation be worn by everyone. It is the memory flower, symbolic of motherhood; its whiteness stands for purity, its form for beauty, its fragrance for love, its universality for charity, its hardihood for fidelity.

LEADER: So here's to the white carnation,
 Wear it on Mother's Day;
 Flower that blooms for mother,
 Winsome, gallant, and gay.
 Flower of perfect sweetness,
 Flower for hut and hall,
 Here's to the white carnation,
 And to mother — our best of all.

Margaret E. Sangster

Hymn No. 38 For the Beauty of the Earth (Standing)

For the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

or

Hymn No. 293 O Happy Home

O happy home, where thou art loved the dearest,
Thou loving friend and Saviour of our race,
And where among the guests there never cometh
One who can hold such high and honored place.

O happy home, where each one serves thee, lowly,
Whatever his appointed work may be,
Till every common task seems great and holy,
When it is done, O Lord, as unto thee.

Hymn No. 41 The Beautiful Bright Sunshine

The beautiful affections
That gather round our way,
The joys that rise from household ties,
And deepen day by day;
The tender love that guards us
Whenever danger lowers,
O God! how fair thy loving care
Has made this earth of ours.

(These hymn stanzas may profitably be read after the hymn singing.)

The Lord's Prayer

OUR FATHER, WHO ART IN HEAVEN,
 HALLOWED BE THY NAME, THY KINGDOM COME,
 THY WILL BE DOWN ON EARTH, AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.
 GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD,
 AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS; AND LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION;
 BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL: FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM, AND THE POWER, AND
 THE GLORY, FOR EVER. Amen.

Hymn Response (Tune 'Dix,' No. 38)

For the joy of human love,
 Brother, sister, parent, child,
 Friends on earth, and friends above,
 For all gentle thoughts and mild,
 Lord of all, to thee we raise
 This our hymn of grateful praise. Amen.

The Messages of Five Governors to Their States on Mother's Day (Unison)

I hope that every man and woman, boy and girl, in our state may value at its own supreme worth the counsel, the self-sacrifice, and the unfailing love which only a devoted mother can give.

Show reverence and respect for the best friend that God ever gave us — Mother.

No state is greater than its Mothers.

The very word 'Mother' is a synonym for reverence. In all nature there is nothing so tender and loving and joyous as the relationship between mother and child.

I respectfully request our citizens generally throughout the state to observe the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. If the day can be spent, at least in part, in her presence, make it one of great comfort to her by such ministrations as the heart of a true man will dictate. If she is living elsewhere, write her a letter full of cheer and confession of love. If she is held in the great beyond, do some deed of beneficence in her name that will cheer the life of another.

Responsive Reading

ALL: HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER THAT THY DAYS MAY BE LONG IN THE LAND WHICH THE LORD THY GOD GIVETH THEE.

LEADER: My son, hear the instruction of thy father and forsake not the teaching of thy mother.

I thank God, having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice.

Hear the words of King Lemuel concerning a woman of the Bible:

ASSEMBLY: Strength and dignity are her clothing;
 She stretcheth forth her hand to the poor;
 She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
 And the law of kindness is on her tongue.
 Her children rise up and call her blessed;
 Her husband also, and he praiseth her, saying;
 'Many daughters have done worthily,
 But thou excelleth them all.'

Prayer

Lord Jesus, thou hast known
A mother's love and tender care,
And thou wilt hear while for my own mother most dear
I make this Sabbath prayer.
Protect her life, I pray,
Who gave the gift of life to me;
And may she know, from day to day, the deepening glow
Of joy that comes from thee.
I cannot pay my debt
For all the love that she has given;
But thou, love's Lord, wilt not forget her due reward, —
Bless her in earth and heaven. Henry Van Dyke

The Messages of Five Great Lovers of Mothers

The love of a mother is never exhausted,
It never changes, it never tires.
It endures through all; in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation,
A mother's love still lives on. Washington Irving

All mothers are rich when they love their children.
There are no poor mothers, no ugly ones, no old ones.
Their love is always the most beautiful of the Joys.
And when they seem most sad, it needs but a kiss which they receive or give to turn all their tears into stars in the depths of their eyes. Maurice Maeterlinck

The happiest part of my happy life has been my mother, and with God's help she will be more to me than ever. Phillips Brooks

Even He that died for us upon the Cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if to teach us that this holy love should be our last worldly thought. Henry W. Longfellow

All that I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother. Abraham Lincoln

Faith of Our Fathers (Music 'St. Catherine,' No. 269)

Faith of our fathers, living still
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword,
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to thee till death. Amen.

The Pledge of Fatherhood

We are seventy strong,
And we will stand with thee
To keep the door of the house of our God.
To bring in our sons in their young manhood,
And to stand with them in worship,
And to lead them forth in service
For the Lord, our God.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION (Plymouth, Dec. 11, 1621)

Our corn did prove well; and, God be praised, we had a good increase of Indian corn. Our harvest being gotten in, our Governor sent four men on fowling, that so we might, after a special manner rejoice together after we had gathered the fruit of our labors. Many of the Indians came amongst us, and among the rest their greatest king, Massasoit, with some ninety men whom for three days we entertained or feasted. Edward Winslow

1. Praise to God and thanks we bring, — Hearts, bow down, and voices, sing!
 2. Praise him for his summer rain, Feeding day and night the grain;
 3. Praise him now for snowy rest, Falling soft on nature's breast;

Praises to the Glorious One, All his year of wonder done!
 Praise him for his tiny seed, Holding all his world shall need;
 Praise for happy dreams of birth, Brooding in the quiet earth:

Praise him for his budding green, April's resurrection scene;
 Praise him for his garden root, Meadowgrass and orchard fruit;
 For his year of wonder done, Praise to the All-glorious One!

Praise him for his shining hours, Starring all the land with flowers!
 Praise for hills and valleys broad, — Each the table of the Lord!
 Hearts, bow down, and voices, sing Praise, and love, and thanksgiving! A-MEN.

ALL: IT IS WRITTEN: MAN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE, BUT BY EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDETH OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD.

LEADER: From oldest times, when shepherds dwelt
In tents of hair outspread,
This art was ordered with the law
That man should live by bread.
By bread, but 'not by bread alone,'
The spirit hath its need,
And on the ministry of truth
Its growing strength must feed. Julia Ward Howe

ASSEMBLY: Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us.
That we should be called the Sons of God.

LEADER: Bless the Lord, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

ASSEMBLY: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits;
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies.

ALL: THANKS BE UNTO GOD FOR HIS UNSPEAKABLE GIFT.

Prayer (All unite reverently)

Father of mankind, who givest to thy creatures all things richly to enjoy! What can we render thee for all the abounding blessings that crown our lives! What canst thou do but give, what can we do but receive, since all we can offer is already thine own. Thou hast given the earth to the children of men. We give thanks and praise for the coming and going of day and night, for the march of the seasons, for the ever repeated miracle of growth by which all creatures are fed. We give thanks for the countless common benefits and comforts of every day and night: for the flowers of human kindness that spring along the path; for the law of commandments which teaches that we are thy servants; for the gospel of love which assures us that we are thy children. Amen.

Hymn Praise to God and Thanks We Bring (Third stanza)Thanksgiving for Our Country and What She Is to Be

New occasions teach new duties: Time makes ancient good uncouth;
They must upward still, and onward, who would keep abreast of Truth;
Lo, before us gleam her camp-fires; We ourselves must Pilgrims be,
Launch our Mayflower, and steer boldly through the desperate winter sea,
Nor attempt the Future's portal with the Past's blood-rusted key. James Russell Lowell

Hymn Men Whose Boast It Is (Tune 'St. George's, Windsor.' See p. 45)

Men whose boast it is that ye	Is true freedom but to break
Come of fathers brave and free,	Fetters for our own dear sake,
If there breathe on earth a slave,	And with leathern hearts forget
Are ye truly free and brave?	That we owe mankind a debt?
If ye do not feel the chain	No! true freedom is to share
When it works a brother's pain,	All the chains our brothers wear,
Are ye not base slaves indeed,	And, with heart and hand, to be
Slaves unworthy to be freed?	Earnest to make others free. Amen.

James Russell Lowell, 1843

XV. Ring in the Christ

Christmas

Instrumental Prelude—Hymn No. 127 (From the 'Messiah')

Responsive Reading (Standing)

LEADER: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings; that saith unto Zion, thy God reigneth.

ASSEMBLY: The voice of thy watchmen! they lift up the voice! together do they sing!

LEADER: Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem!

Hymn No. 231 (Tune 'Watchman' or 'St. George's, Windsor')

Watchman, tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are.
Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height
See that glory-beaming star.
Watchman, does its beauteous ray
Aught of joy or hope foretell?
Traveler, yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.

LEADER: O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion,
Get thee up into a high mountain!

ASSEMBLY: O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem,
Lift up thy voice with strength!

LEADER: Lift it up, be not afraid
Say to the cities of Judah,
Behold your God!

ASSEMBLY: Arise, shine; for thy light is come;
And the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee!

LEADER: The people that walked in darkness have Seen a great light.

ASSEMBLY: They that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,
On them hath the light shined.

Hymn

Watchman, tell us of the night
For the morning seems to dawn.
Traveler, darkness takes its flight:
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace,
Lo, the Son of God is come. Amen.

ALL: FOR UNTO US A CHILD IS BORN,
 UNTO US A SON IS GIVEN;
 AND THE GOVERNMENT SHALL BE UPON HIS SHOULDERS:
 AND HIS NAME SHALL BE CALLED,
 WONDERFUL, COUNSELLOR, MIGHTY GOD,
 EVERLASTING FATHER, PRINCE OF PEACE.

Hymn No. 223 (Tune 'Waltham')

Ring out, old shapes of foul disease;
 Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
 Ring out the thousand wars of old,
 Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
 The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
 Ring out the darkness of the land,
 Ring in the Christ that is to be. Amen.

THREE NATIVITY PICTURES IN SÖNG AND VERSE

The Kings and the Star (Leader)

The Kings of the East are riding
 To-night to Bethlehem.
 The sunset glows dividing,
 The Kings of the East are riding;
 A star their journey guiding,
 Beaming with gold and gem.
 The Kings of the East are riding
 To-night to Bethlehem Katharine Lee Bates

Refrain (All sing)

O star of won - der, star of night, Star with roy - al beau - ty bright,

RING IN THE CHRIST

The Town and the Star (Leader)

O little town, O little town,
Upon the hills so far,
We see you, like a thing sublime,
Across the great gray wastes of time,
And men go up and men go down,
But follow still the star. Clinton Scollard

(All sing) O star of wonder, star of night,

The Manger and the Star

We would see Jesus, lo! his star is shining
Above the stable while the angels sing;
There in a manger on the hay reclining,
Haste, let us lay our gifts before the King. J. Edgar Park

The Five Pointed Star of Love and Service (Unison)

Love to God

O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

Love to Man

Whoso bears his brother's burden,
Whoso shares another's woe,
Brings his frankincense to Jesus
With the men of long ago.

Thoughtfulness

For somehow, not only for Christmas,
But all the long year through,
The joy that you give to others,
Is the joy that comes back to you.

Self-Sacrifice (Read or sing)

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me;
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
Our God is marching on.

Joy

There's a tumult of joy
O'er the wonderful birth,
For the Virgin's sweet boy
Is the Lord of the earth.

The World and the Star

Christians, lo, the star appeareth
Leading still the ancient way;
Christians, onward with your treasure;
It is still Messiah's day.

Our God is love! Love cannot die!
Sure as the peace that follows strife,
The resurrection's glorious life!

This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Lift Up Your Heads

ALL: Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:
And the King of glory will come in.
Who is the King of glory?
The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
Yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors:
And the King of glory will come in.
Who is this King of Glory?
The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Hymn Lift Up Your Heads (Tune 'Waltham,' No. 121)

- 1 Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates!
Behold the King of glory waits;
The King of kings is drawing near;
The Saviour of the world is here.
- 2 O blest the land, the city blest,
Where Christ the Ruler is confest!
O happy hearts and happy homes
To whom this King of triumph comes!
- 3 Fling wide the portals of your heart!
Make it a temple, set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer and love and joy.
- 4 Redeemer, come! I open wide
My heart to thee: here, Lord, abide!
Let me thy inner presence feel:
Thy grace and love in me reveal. Amen.

ASSEMBLY: We need not go to Mecca or to Palestine to find the Holy Land.

The soul of man can transfigure earth and make it holy ground.
Sacred are the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane;

Sacred the field of Thermopylae and the Town Common at Lexington;

Sacred are Plymouth Rock and Bunker Hill.

All are sacred because they bear the stamp of man's immortal soul. James Freeman Clark

II. MAKING DEATH SIGNIFICANT

Hymn No. 22 Abide with Me

I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.
Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes,
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen. (Seated)

LEADER:

'Why fear death? It is the most beautiful adventure that life gives us.'

For all the boundless universe
Is life — there are no dead. (Bulwer Lytton)

We make too much of the circumstances men call death.
All life is one. All service one, be it here or there. Alice Freeman Palmer

The whole race reaches new heights in the breast of some simple hearted soldier, who so loves life that he has much to give, but so loves his country and his cause that he freely gives it all.
Ralph Barton Perry

To die for truth is not to die for one's country, but to die for the world. Jean Paul Richter

That no one who has died for a great cause is ever wasted, that the only right expression of grief is a fresh self-dedication to the cause the loved one loved, is an attitude toward loss that may well pass from the army of warriors to that greater army of civilians. Winifred Kirkland

Hymn No. 298 For All the Saints

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia.

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia. Amen.

III. THE CLOUD OF WITNESSES

ALL: THEIRS NOT TO MAKE REPLY,
THEIRS NOT TO REASON WHY,
THEIRS BUT TO DO AND DIE.

LEADER: That other generations might possess —
From shame and menace free in years to come —
A richer heritage of happiness,
He marched to that heroic martyrdom. Alan Seeger

ASSEMBLY: One by one Death challenged them. One by one they smiled in his grim visage, and refused to be dismayed. They had been lost, but they had found the path that led them home; and when at last they laid their lives at the feet of the Good Shepherd, what could they do but smile? Donald Hankey

LEADER: Lord, thou didst suffer more for me
Than all the hosts of land and sea.
So let me render back again
This millionth of thy gift. Joyce Kilmer

ASSEMBLY: Patriotism is not enough; I must have no hatred or bitterness toward any one. Edith Cavell (just before her execution)

ALL: TO YOU FROM FALLING HANDS WE THROW THE TORCH — BE YOURS TO HOLD IT HIGH;
IF YE BREAK FAITH WITH US WHO DIE,
WE SHALL NOT SLEEP, THOUGH POPPIES GROW, IN FLANDERS FIELDS.
John McCrae

IV. BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN

Hymn No. 297 Hark, Hark, My Soul

Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night! Amen.

ASSEMBLY: I am the resurrection and the life;
He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.
Whosoever believeth in me shall never die.

LEADER: God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
There shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying,
Neither shall there be any more pain.

ASSEMBLY: Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

ALL: BE WORTHY OF YOUR NOBLE DEAD,
SO SHALL YOUR HEARTS BE COMFORTED.
HE IS NOT LOST WHO GOES BEFORE,
BUT, STANDING IN THE OPEN DOOR,
HE WAITS YOU THERE WITH OUTSTRETCHED HANDS, LOVE'S DEAREST, BEST AMBASSADOR.

V. HOLD HIGH THE TORCH

LEADER: Because you live, though out of sight and reach,
I will, so help me God, live bravely, too,
Taking the road with laughter and gay speech,
Alert, intent to give life all its due. Winifred Letts

Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg

LEADER: Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

ASSEMBLY: Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

LEADER: We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

ASSEMBLY: It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground.

LEADER: The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract.

ASSEMBLY: The world will little note nor long remember what we say here; but it can never forget what they did here.

LEADER: It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

ASSEMBLY: It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us: that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion:

That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Prayer

Hymn No. 239 O Beautiful for Spacious Skies

God shed his grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood, From sea to shining sea!	2 O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern, impassioned stress A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness! America! America! God mend thine every flaw, Confirm thy soul in self-control. Thy liberty in law! Amen

And the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

LEADER: And all these blessings shall overtake thee.
Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.
Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body and the fruit of thy ground.
Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.
Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

smitten before thy face.

ASSEMBLY: Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabi-

Let the oppressed go free; break every yoke.
Then shall thy light break forth as the morning,
And thine health shall spring forth speedily.
And thy righteousness shall go before thee:
And the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward. (Seated)

LEADER: ATHENIAN OATH (Translated from the Greek)

We will never bring disgrace to this, our nation, by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; we will fight for the ideals of the nation: both alone and with others: we will revere and respect our nation's laws, and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those above us who are prone to annul and set them at naught; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty, thus in all these ways, we will transmit this nation not only not less but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

ALL: FROM CONCORD BRIDGE TO THE MEUSE

The road from Concord Bridge to the heights above the Meuse is long, but it runs straight, and along it men are still led by the same love of liberty and service of democracy which was revealed in our first battle morning nearly a century and a half ago. Frank H. Simonds

ALL: The Flag and What It Stands For Freedom

My name is Liberty!
From out a mighty land
I face the ancient sea,
I lift to God my hand:

By day in heaven's light
A pillar of fire by night
At ocean's gate I stand
Nor bend the knee. Clarence Stedman

Union

Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable. Daniel Webster

Equality

We hold these truths to be self-evident:
 That all men are created equal;
 That they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights;
 That among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;
 That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. Thomas Jefferson

Humanity

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan — to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations. Abraham Lincoln

Service

God hath made of one blood all nations of men, and we are his children, — brothers and sisters all.

We are citizens of these United States, and we believe our Flag stands for self-sacrifice for the good of all the people. We want, therefore, to be true citizens of our great country, and will show our love for her by our works.

Our country does not ask us to die for her welfare; she asks us to live for her, and so to live and so to act that her government may be pure, her officers honest, and every corner of her territory shall be a place fit to grow the best men and women, who shall rule over her. Mary McDowell

Education and Americanization

The Flag means universal education — light for every mind, knowledge for every child. We must have but one flag. We must also have but one language.

This must be the language of the Declaration of Independence Woodrow Wilson

Righteousness

I have lived a long time; and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth,

THAT GOD GOVERNS IN THE AFFAIRS OF MEN.

And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without his aid?

We have been assured in the sacred writings that except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. Benjamin Franklin

World Brotherhood

But the right is more precious than peace, and we shall fight for the things which we have always carried nearest our hearts — for democracy, for the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own governments, for the rights and liberties of small nations, for a universal dominion of right by such a concert of free peoples as shall bring peace and safety to all nations and make the world itself at last free. Woodrow Wilson

Apostrophe to the Flag (All uniting)

All hail to our glorious ensign!

Courage to the heart, and strength to the hand, to which, in all time, it shall be entrusted. On whatsoever spot it is planted, there may freedom have a foothold, humanity a brave champion, and religion an altar. Edward Everett

In the name of God we lift up our banner, and dedicate it to peace, union, and liberty now and forevermore. Henry Ward Beecher

I am what you make me, nothing more.

I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color.

A symbol of yourself.

A pictured suggestion of that big thing which makes this nation.

My stars and my stripes are your dream and your labors.

They are bright with cheer, brilliant with courage, firm with faith, because you have made them so out of your hearts.

WE ARE ALL MAKING THE FLAG. Franklin K. Lane

Salute to the Flag

I pledge allegiance to my flag
And to the republic for which it stands;
One nation, indivisible,
With liberty and justice for all.

National Anthem

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner still wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

(All seated)

Prayer

O God of purity and peace, God of light and freedom, God of comfort and joy, we thank thee for our country, this great land of hope, whose wide doors thou hast opened to so many millions that struggle with hardship and with hunger in the crowded Old World.

We give thanks to the power that has made and preserved us a nation, that has carried our ship of state through storm and darkness and has given us a place of honor and power that we might bear aloft the standard of impartial liberty and impartial law.

May our altars and our schools ever stand as pillars of welfare; may the broad land be filled with homes of intelligent and contented industry, that through the long generations our land may be a happy land and our country a power of good will among the nations. Amen. Charles Gordon Ames

LEADER: The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

ASSEMBLY: The Lord of Hosts is with us,
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

LEADER: They that trust in the Lord
Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth forever.

ASSEMBLY: As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,
So the Lord is round about his people
From this time forth and for evermore.

LEADER: Come, behold the works of the Lord,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.

ASSEMBLY: He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth,
He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;
He burneth the chariots in the fire.

LEADER: Be still, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.

LEADER: Of the increase of his government there shall be no end, to order it and to establish it with judgment and with justice forever.

ASSEMBLY: Nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

LEADER: I will make thy officers peace and thy rulers righteousness. Violence and destruction shall no more be heard in the land. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

ASSEMBLY: For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

LEADER: Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will make a new covenant with you. I will put my law within you and write it in your hearts. My people shall all be righteous; they shall inherit the earth forever. I, the Lord, will bring it to pass in mine own time.

ASSEMBLY: Hallelujah, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!

Hymn (Tune 'America')

God, grant us now thy peace,
Bid all dissensions cease,
God, send us peace.
Peace in true liberty,
Peace in equality,
Peace and fraternity,
God, send us peace.

LEADER: Peace should be made with all mankind. It should be our care not only to make peace, but to maintain it. But this will never be until we are persuaded that quiet is better than disturbance, justice than injustice, the care of our own than grasping at what belongs to others.

(Oration on Peace—Isocrates 400 B. C.)

PEACE AND WORLD BROTHERHOOD

LEADER: We punish murderers and massacres among private persons. What do we respecting wars, and the glorious crime of murdering whole nations? The love of conquest is a murderess. Conquerors are scourges not less harmful to humanity than floods and earthquakes.

(Seneca, the Roman, born the same year as Christ)

Hymn God Grant Us Now Thy Peace

ASSEMBLY: Let us, then, as a nation, be just — observe good faith towards all nations, cultivate peace and harmony with all, and give to mankind the example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence. George Washington

Unison Reading

'Up to the sombre sky
Rolled one great thankful sigh,
Rolled one great gladsome cry —
The soul's deliverance of a mighty people —
Thank God for peace.
The long low-hanging war-cloud rolled away,
The night glowed brighter than the brightest day.'

(Standing)

LEADER: Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion:

ASSEMBLY: Put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the Holy City.

Shake thyself from the dust; arise, sit on thy throne, O Jerusalem.

Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

Hymn

O Zion, haste, thy mission high fulfilling,
To tell to all the world that God is Light,
That he who made all nations is not willing
One soul should perish, lost in shades of night.

LEADER: O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion,
Get thee up into a high mountain.

ASSEMBLY: O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem,
Lift up thy voice with strength.

LEADER: Lift it up, be not afraid;
Say unto the cities of Judah,
Behold your God.

Hymn

Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

LEADER: Then shall the King say:
For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat;
I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink:
I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me:
I was sick, and ye visited me:
I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

ASSEMBLY: Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Hymn

Behold how many thousands still are lying
Bound in the darksome prison-house of sin,
With none to tell them of the Saviour's dying,
Or of the life he died for them to win!

ALL: THROUGH TRIBULATIONS AND DISTRESS, THEY COME!
THROUGH PERILS GREAT AND BITTERNESS,
THROUGH PERSECUTIONS PITILESS, THEY COME!
THEY COME BY PATHS THE MARTYRS TROD,
THEY COME FROM UNDERNEATH THE ROD,
CLIMBING THROUGH THE DARKNESS UP TO GOD, THEY COME!
OUT OF MIGHTY TRIBULATION, WITH A SOUND OF JUBILATION,
THEY COME! THEY COME! John Oxenham

Hymn

Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

LEADER: Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations,
Baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit:
Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you:

ASSEMBLY: And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

Hymn

Give of thy sons to bear the message glorious,
Give of thy wealth to speed them on their way,
Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious;
And all thou spendest Jesus will repay.

LEADER: The spirit of the Lord is upon me,
Because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor:
He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives,
And recovering of sight to the blind;
To set at liberty them that are bruised,
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

Hymn

Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

LEADER: He will not fail nor be discouraged till he shall have set justice in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law.
When the Son of man shall come in his glory,
And all the holy angels with him,
Then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory,
And before him shall be gathered all nations.

Hymn

He comes again: O Zion, ere thou meet him,
Make known to every heart his saving grace;
Let none whom he hath ransomed fail to greet him,
Through thy neglect, unfit to see his face.

ALL: BLESSED BE THE LORD GOD, THE GOD OF ISRAEL, WHO ONLY DOETH WONDROUS THINGS:
AND BLESSED BE HIS GLORIOUS NAME FOR EVER;
AND LET THE WHOLE EARTH BE FILLED WITH HIS GLORY.

Hymn

Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release. Amen.
